

Beef Quality Assurance Program

Cole Facility

UC Davis

Davis, CA

May 7th, 8:30 am -3:30pm

A Beef Quality Assurance Program is being held by the University of California Cooperative Extension and California Cattlemen's Association at the Cole Facility on May 7th. Topics will include injection and vaccine information, animal ID, age and source verification and national bull and cow beef quality audit as well as a short animal health program after lunch.

There is no charge for the meeting unless you need to be certified through California Cattlemen's Association. Certification needs to be completed every two years to remain current.  The certification fee is $25 per ranch (not per person); checks made payable to California Cattlemen's Association will be collected on the day of the event. Please pre-register by contacting Kitty Burnett (707-784-1318, kburnett@ucdavis.edu) at the Solano County Cooperative Extension Office before April 22, 2011. Please contact Morgan Doran (707-784-1326) or Theresa Becchetti (209-525-6800) for more information.
