

UCCE Northern San Joaquin Valley Processing Tomato Meeting

*University of California Cooperative Extension Farm Advisors
San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Merced Counties*

Thursday, February 3, 2022, 8:00 - 11:00 am

Online Meeting via Zoom (<https://zoom.us/join>)

Meeting ID: 938 5309 0607 Passcode: ProcTom22

PROGRAM

7:45 Zoom Waiting Room open

8:00 Welcome. Scott Stoddard, Vegetable Crops Farm Advisor, UCCE Merced

8:05 Recent research on management of tomato spotted wilt virus.

Tom Turini, Vegetable Crops Farm Advisor, UCCE Fresno

8:25 Updates on beet leafhopper as a vector for curly top virus on processing tomatoes in Stanislaus County.

Zheng Wang, Vegetable Crops Advisor, UCCE Stanislaus

8:45 Fusarium diseases of tomato and their management: Falciforme and Fusarium wilt.

Cassandra Swett, CE Plant Pathology Specialist, UC Davis

9:10 Resistance breaking nematodes and fusarium interactions.

Amanda Hodson, UC Davis Plant Pathology

9:30 Bio-break.

9:40 Update on root-knot nematode management in tomatoes.

Jaspreet Sidhu, Vegetable Crops Farm Advisor, UCCE Kern

10:00 Evaluation of automated and mechanical in-row cultivators in conventional processing tomatoes.

Amber Vinchesi-Vahl, Farm Advisor, UCCE Sutter-Yuba.

10:20 Broomrape - Background, recent research, and regulatory information.

Zach Bagley, Managing Director, CTRI

10:40 2021 Year in Review.

Scott Picanso, TS&L Seed Company.

11:00 End of meeting.