

VEG VIEWS

For Stanislaus County

January 2005

UC Cooperative Extension
Northern San Joaquin Valley
Processing Tomato Production Meeting

In Conjunction With The California Tomato Grower's Association
58th Annual Exhibit and Membership Meeting
January 19, 2005 (Wednesday)
Modesto Doubletree Hotel
1150 9th St
Modesto, CA

3.0 hours of Continuing Education Credit Requested

MEETING AGENDA

- 8:00-8:25 Coffee and refreshments
Moderator: Jan Mickler/Farm Advisor, Stanislaus County
- 8:25-8:30 Welcome and Introductions
- 8:30-8:50 Chemical Control of the Garden Symphylan
Benny Fouche, Farm Advisor, San Joaquin County
- 8:50-9:10 Nightshade and Nutsedge Control in Processing Tomatoes:
Scott Stoddard, Farm Advisor, Merced/Madera Counties
- 9:10-9:30 Powdery Mildew Control Evaluations:
Jan Mickler, Farm Advisor, Stanislaus County
- 9:30-9:50 BREAK
- 9:50-10:10 Research Progress Reports: Transplant Spacing With Multiple Plant Densities and Evaluating Extended Field Storage Varieties:
Michelle Le Strange, Farm Advisor, Tulare/Kings/Fresno Counties
- 10:10-10:30 Evaluation of Mustard Cover Cropping and Comparing Direct Seed Vs. Transplant Populations:
Gene Miyao, Farm Advisor, Yolo/Solano/Sacramento Counties
- 10:30-10:50 The Role of County Farm Advisors in the Development of the California Processing Tomato Industry:
Mike Murray, County Director/ Farm Advisor, Colusa/Sutter/Yuba Counties
- 10:30-10:50 Deficit Irrigation and K Fertigation for Fruit Quality Improvement:
Paul Johnstone, University of California, Davis

Meeting Room and Refreshments

Kindly Provided by California Tomato Growers Association

Meeting is open to any interested party. Meeting facility is handicap accessible.

Jan Mickler,
Vegetable Crops Advisor